1997 WISCONSIN ACT 30

AN ACT relating to: eligibility for a social security integrated annuity under the Wisconsin retirement system.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Nonstatutory provisions.

(1) Notwithstanding section 40.25 (1) of the statutes and any rules promulgated by the department of employee trust funds to administer section 40.24 (1) (e) of the statutes, any participant in the Wisconsin retirement system who applied for a social security integrated annuity before April 23, 1994, for an annuity with an effective date beginning on or after April 23, 1994, is eligible for a social security integrated annuity if the amount of the reduced Wisconsin retirement system annuity that he or she receives after attaining the age of 62 is greater than $41 monthly. To be eligible for a social security integrated annuity under this subsection, the participant must submit a subsequent application to the department of employee trust funds for a social security integrated annuity no later than 60 days after the effective date of this subsection.

* Section 991.11, WISCONSIN STATUTES 1995-96: Effective date of acts. "Every act and every portion of an act enacted by the legislature over the governor's partial veto which does not expressly prescribe the time when it takes effect shall take effect on the day after its date of publication as designated" by the secretary of state [the date of publication may not be more than 10 working days after the date of enactment].
